LIVING HISTORY

Living History is like a time machine to a world waiting to be discovered from your own personal perspective. It can take you back to a special date, and event, a location, or a lifestyle. You can be a spectator or observer. You can meet a person who changed history OR you can become that man or woman who changed history. Interest areas to explore may include clothing, crafts, cooking and life skills appropriate to the time period. Member determines historic period and person (s) to explore.

- Class date and times to be determined.
- Age - at least 8 and in third grade through 18 years of age by January 1, 2008.
- Cost - $5.00 for project book. (Additional cost varies with characters and activities selected.)
- Informational and Organizational Session - January 21, 7-8 pm, at the Coshocton Library in the downstairs meeting room.
