Equine Merit Award – Junior Division (ages 9-13)
Due Oct. 2, 2023 at Horse Exhibitor Meeting

	Activity	Possible Points	Total Points Completed	Judges Scoring/Comments
1	Enroll in and complete a horse project. Submit completed book, evaluation sheet as well as all completed project requirements such as report, scrapbook, diary, etc.	100 points
2	Complete a non-horse project. Submit a copy of evaluation sheet.	25 points per project, max. of 50 points
3	Complete Horse Safety & Ethics Training	25 points
4	Attend a horse clinic. Submit a flyer and a paragraph explaining the topics.	75 points
5	Attend an educational clinic non-horse related. Submit a flyer and a paragraph explaining the topics.	50 points
6	Hold an office in your 4-H club. Submit a club program or a club roster with Advisor signature.	25 points
7	Participate in County Speaking or Demonstration Contest. Submit a picture and a copy of your presentation.	50 points
8	Complete two hours of community service. Submit a paragraph explaining what you did (community service is not a financial donation; it is labor to help others).	50 points for two hours, 100 points for four hours
9	Do a club demonstration. Submit a paragraph that explains what your demonstration was on and a picture if you have one.	25 points per demonstration, max of 50 points
10	Attend a horse advisory meeting. Submit a copy of the agenda.	25 points
11	Participate in the Coshocton County Junior Fair. Submit a show program immediately following Jr. Fair Horse Show.	100 points
12	Apply for County Medals of Honor. Submit a copy of your applications.	30 points for horse related, 25 points for non-horse, max of 50 for non-horse.
13	Promote 4-H in the county, ex: news article in the paper, radio spot, display, speak to a group or a school. Submit with Advisor signature what you did.	100 points

Each paragraph must be submitted on a separate page, each including an advisors signature to verify.
To achieve the Equine Merit award – you must receive 525 out of the possible 830 points.