Hello Coshoccon County!

It has been a whirlwind of activity since I moved to Coshoccon County at the beginning of September to become the Agriculture & Natural Resources Extension Educator for Coshoccon County. I have been so grateful for the warm reception I have received from many of you since moving down from Ashtabula County.

I have enjoyed visiting with many of you on the farm, in the office and at different events around the county. I especially appreciate getting out on your farms. We have quite a number of programs already planned for this winter and I hope to see many of you there.

I am conducting an Ag Needs Assessment and am asking farmers and any person working in the Ag Industry to provide input about our Extension Ag & Natural Resources program. Please see the attached survey. Your input is important to us—Please mail in the attached survey or complete it on-line at go.osu.edu/coshocconag

I am also planning to start an electronic ag newsletter. Please make sure we have an up-to-date email address and we will send you program updates and the latest management information via this newsletter! You can sign up for this newsletter at: go.osu.edu/coshocconmaillist

I look forward to meeting and working with each of you. Give me a call at 740-622-2265 or stop in to the Extension office anytime!

Sincerely,

David Marrison

Coshoccon County OSU Extension ANR Educator

As an introduction, I was born and raised in Ashtabula County on a 465-acre dairy farm with 50 cows. Our family milked cows up until 2010 and we still raise corn, soybeans and hay. In high school, I was very active in FFA and 4-H. I am a “Boiling Buckeye” as I received a Bachelor’s Degree in Ag Education & Ag Economics from The Ohio State University and a Master’s Degree in Education from Purdue University.

But as we all learn, life has a crazy way of walking you down different paths. Cancer forever changed our family in 2010 and then again in 2015. But just as rainbows follow some of the nasty rain showers, so too can blessings come from tragedy. A wonderful new marriage has brought me south and I am excited to now call Coshocton County home!

A copy of the survey is included with this newsletter. An on-line version of the survey can be accessed at go.osu.edu/coshoctonag. Please take the time to complete the survey and return to our office.

Survey respondents will also have the opportunity to register to win a donated $100 VISA gift card.

The Coshocton County Extension office invites Coshocton County residents to sign up for our Coshocton County Extension Agricultural & Natural Resources Mailing List.

Mail back in the enclosed form or access the form on-line at: go.osu.edu/coshoctonmaillist

OSU Extension in Coshocton County is pleased to be offering two re-certification opportunities for producers who need to renew their private pesticide applicators license and/or their fertilizer certification by March 31, 2019.

Both sessions will offer 3 credit hours for Private Pesticide Re-certification (CORE & Categories 1-6) and 1 credit for Fertilizer Re-certification credit (Category 15). The registration cost for the pesticide re-certification session is $20 per person and the registration cost for the fertilizer re-certification is $10 per registrant. An optional PIZZA lunch will be offered during the January 15th day meeting for $5 per person.

Pre-registration is requested no later than one week prior to each meeting as space is limited at each location. First come – first served. Call the Coshocton County Extension at 740-622-2265 to make your reservation. A registration flyer can also be found at: go.osu.edu/coshoctonevents

2019 Ohio Beef Cattle Webinar Slated for February 5

OSU Extension in Coshocton County is pleased to be a viewing site for the 2019 Ohio Beef Cattle School which will be held on Tuesday, February 5, 2019 starting at 7:00 p.m. This webinar will be available for viewing at the Coshocton County Extension office. The webinar's theme is: Winter Management of the Cow Herd to Insure a Productive 2019. Some of the topics will be addressed in this webinar include:

#1: Analyzing the Current Situation: What is the quality and quantity of your hay supply and what is the body condition of your herd?

#2: Nutritional requirements of the beef female for optimal performance from the last trimester through breeding season.

#3: Impacts of nutrition on heifer development and conception rates of heifers. Impacts of nutrition on days to return to estrus and conception rates of lactating females.

#4: Managing calf health born into stressful situations: Weak calves, importance of amount and timing of colostrum intake, colostrum replacers or supplements, suggested newborn treatments and vaccinations, etc.

Speakers will include OSU Animal Science Dept. Specialists and members of the OSU Extension Beef Team. There is no fee to attend this webinar but reservations are being requested as space is limited in the office meeting room. First come, first served. Call the Coshocton County Extension office at 740-622-2265 for more information.

Designing & Selecting Plants for Your Perennial Garden

The Coshocton County Master Gardeners will be offering a "Designing & Selecting Plants for Your Perennial Garden" series on Wednesday, January 16 and February 6, 2019 at Clary Gardens located at 588 West Chestnut Street in Coshocton.

Have you thought about planting a perennial bed, but just don't know where to start? If so, during this two-part series, the Master Gardeners will be teaching how to design a perennial garden, how to select perennial plants, and will be answering your questions. There is no registration fee for this series. More information about this program can be obtained by calling the Coshocton County Extension office at 740-622-2265.

Macro Photography in the Outdoors Workshop to be held on February 18

OSU Extension in Coshocton County is pleased to be offering a "Macro-Photography in the Outdoors" Workshop on Monday, February 18, 2019 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Coshocton County Services Building - Room 145 located at 724 South 7th Street in Coshocton, Ohio.

Many photographers today want to know how to take Macro Pictures thanks to a growing number of beautiful images online of small plants, animals, and insects. Join OSU Extension as we host Danae Wolfe (Award Winning Photographer and OSU Educational Technology Specialist) who will teach the basics of macro photography.

Macrophotography is the close-up photography of very small subjects in which size of the subject in the photograph is greater than life size. During this workshop, attendees will learn macro photography techniques, choosing the right equipment, and other tips for taking outdoor photographs.

The registration fee is $5 per person and is limited to the first 42 registrants. Please register by February 11, 2019. Make checks payable to Ohio State University Extension. Call the Coshocton County Extension at 740-622-2265 for more information. A registration flyer can also be found at: go.osu.edu/coshoctonevents

Timber Marketing Workshop to be held on March 11, 2019 in Coshocton County

OSU Extension in Coshocton County is pleased to be offering a “Timber Marketing” Workshop on Monday, March 11, 2019 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. This program will be held at the Frontier Power Community Room located at 770 South 2nd Street in Coshocton, OH 43812.

Selling timber isn't something that woodland owners should take lightly. This program is designed to help you make decisions that will have a positive influence on you and your woodland. Speakers for this event include: Dave Apsley, OSU Extension Natural Resources Specialist; Adam Komar, ODNR Service Forester; and Bob Mulligan, Forest Hydrology Manager from the Ohio Division of Forestry.

Topics which will be addressed at this workshop include: Matching the harvest to your goals; Marketing your timber; Which trees & when to cut; Best Management Practices; Timber Stand Improvement; Ohio Master Logger program and Timber Prices & Trends.

Registration is $10 per person and pre-reservations are requested by March 4, 2019. Room space is limited, so first come first serve. Maximum registration of 50 persons. Make checks payable to Ohio State University Extension. Mail to Coshocton Extension office, 724 South 7th Street, Coshocton, Ohio 43812.

This program has been approved for 2.0 hours of Ohio Forest Tax Law Education Credits. Call the Coshocton County Extension office at 740-622-2265 for more information about this program. A registration flyer can also be found at: go.osu.edu/coshoctonevents

2019 Ag Outlook and Policy Meeting

Commodity prices, the new farm bill, U.S. trade policy, the dairy economy, crop production economics, and the new tax laws. Each of these topics has implications for the farm economy and quite possibly for on-farm management decisions in 2019. Get the latest information about these and other timely topics at the 2019 Ag Outlook and Policy Meeting scheduled for Wednesday, January 30 from 9:30 to 3:30 p.m. at Fisher Auditorium on the OARDC campus in Wooster.

Registration cost is $15/person and the deadline to register is January 24. Register by contacting the Wayne County Extension office at 330-264-8722 or sending an email to ferencak.2@osu.edu. Include your name/names of those attending, phone number and email or mailing address. An informational flyer and registration form is available on the Wayne County Extension web site at: go.osu.edu/AgOutlook19.

Soybean Meeting

The Tuscarawas County Extension office will be hosting an Agronomy Update on January 18, 2019 beginning at 1:00 p.m. at the Village of Tuscarawas Community Center located at 212 E. Cherry Street in Tuscarawas, Ohio.

The featured speakers for this meeting will be Dr. Laura Lindsey, Assistant Professor and OSU Extension Soybean Specialist, and Dr. Aaron Wilson, Senior Research Associate at the OSU Byrd Polar Climate and Research Center and an OSU Extension Specialist

Dr. Lindsey will discuss factors affecting soybean production and provide management strategies farmers can implement to maximize yield, including seeding rates & fertility management. Dr. Wilson will discuss changes in climate, its potential impacts on agriculture, and steps farmers can take to manage the impacts.

This program is free but registration is requested by January 16, 2019. Registration can be made by calling the Tuscarawas Extension office at 330-339-2337.

Beef Quality Assurance

The Tuscarawas County Extension office will be hosting a Beef Quality Assurance Certification program on January 8 starting at 1:00 p.m. at the Sugarcreek Livestock Auction Barn. There is no fee to attend but pre-registrations are requested by calling the Tuscarawas Extension office at 330-339-2337.

The training can also be completed on-line at www.bqa.org. Additional beef quality assurance programs will also be held in Coshocton, Tuscarawas and Muskingum Counties this winter. Be watching for details on these programs.

Fall Foliage and Farm Tour a Success

The Coshocton County Fall Foliage and Farm Tour was held on October 20 & 21. Despite the chilly temperatures and “green” foliage over 1,300 people from five states and 29 Ohio counties participated in this year’s tour.

The offices of OSU Extension, Coshocton SWCD & Coshocton FSA would like to thank this year’s hosts who made this tour a success. Thank you The Animal Boutique & Villas, Coshocton County Antique Power Association, Jim Ronhausen, Wills Dairy Farm, Millcreek Beachy Farm, Lillibridge family, Bakersville Community Church, TMK Bakersville, Rainbow Hills Winery, and Woolly Pig Farm Brewery! Mark your calendar now for the 2019 tour which will be held on October 19-20.

“For the Love of Lamb Dinner” Sold-Out in 2018!

A sold-out crowd of 60 people attended the 3rd Annual “For the Love of Lamb Dinner” on Saturday, November 17 at Heritage Vineyard Winery. Chef would like to extend a huge thank you to Elaine Ashcraft and Nancy Wells for their hard work behind the scene to make this event possible! Thanks Elaine and Nancy-you both are truly a blessing.

Congratulations to Adeline Kendle, daughter of Todd & Christine Kendle of Tuscarawas County for being selected as the 2019 Coshocton & Tuscarawas Lamb & Wool Queen. Adeline was crowned during the dinner. We wish her the best as she represents both Coshocton and Tuscarawas Counties during the upcoming year. A special thank you is extended to Serenity Cannon, daughter of Laura & Scott Cannon, of Warsaw, Ohio for her great service as the 2018 Lamb & Wool Queen.

Fall Program Recap

Eleven producers danced around the raindrops to attend a Pasture Walk on September 25 at Thousand Hills Acres (Walhonding) owned by Mr. Mark Reed. Participants learned about MOB grazing and how to stock pile forages. These pasture walks are held in conjunction with the Coshocton Soil & Water Conservation District and the Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS).

43 people attended the Mushroom Madness program on October 11 to learn more about mushroom ecology and identification.

Twenty-eight beef producers gained their beef quality assurance accreditation by attending the Beef Quality Assurance training on October 22.

Seventeen residents learned about the trends of climate change at the Global Climate Change workshop on November 29.

Twenty-two farmers attended the Farmer’s Breakfast (sponsored by OSU, SWCD & FSA) to learn about the grain markets on November 6 and 17 participated in the December 11 breakfast learning about taxidermy.
